DIRECTORS & OFFICERS

Every director and officer is exposed to several risks, regardless of the size of their business or the number of employees. The key risks are:

- investigation
- error and omissions
- damages awarded by a court of law
- civil sanctions
- employee claims
- claims made against the directors and officers by the company.

Any senior manager, administrator or managing director should cover these exposures in order to protect themselves for their personal liability. The directors' and officers' liability insurance – known as D&O – indemnify these individuals from losses or advancement of defence costs in case of wrongdoing. Our team of specialists regularly offer D&O cover across all types of organisations and can help protect you too.
